We did it! Our historic season was capped off last Saturday July 25 with a convincing win at the A Division Championship meet. The level of competition was very high. Our swimmers were excited and were competitive in all the races swam. Overall we captured first place in 16 of 49 events, and strong 2nd thru 6th place finishes in most event. Thank you coaches, parents and swimmers! The final scores was TP 301, MVP 218, TB 215, SBP 194, BBT 179 & WLS 81 In this team effort, Joshua has set 2 new league records. Way to Go Joshua! We have had a Great 2009 Swim Season!

Please Plan to take next Summer Vacation after the 2010 season!

Season OVERview

Although it took us a decade, this TPDC team united under the banner of perseverance, hard work, commitment, total team effort and dedication has made its mark and can feel proud to know that our efforts have paid off. The team can forever boast of having an undefeated season in 2009 and our children can feel proud of what they have been able to accomplish. Thank you Coach Green for your leadership and dedication over the last 10 seasons—you did not missed a single meet!
